

On the Green

EDWARD MINER GALLAUDET MEMORIAL LIBRARY
GALLAUDET COLLEGE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

VOL. V, NO. 9
November 5, 1975

OPEN SEASON

All permanent Gallaudet employees will be able to make changes in their health insurance programs from November 15 to December 31.

Rate schedules and new program brochures will be distributed when available. Premium rates for most health plans will be significantly higher than present rates. All employees are strongly advised to review program booklets carefully as there have been benefit changes within some plans. Don't be caught not knowing what coverage you have.

"GOOD TIMES" EXPLORES DEAFNESS

On Tuesday evening, November 11, at 8 p.m. on CBS-TV, the comedy series "Good Times" will present a program in which actor J.A. Preston will portray Walter Ingles, a handsome, middle-age bachelor who, in the past year, has totally lost his hearing.

Rose Zucker and Jean Greenberg from the Temple of the Deaf in Los Angeles, have acted as special advisors to the program and have spent several days working with Preston on lipreading and sign language.

BLOOD DRIVE NEARS

Faculty, staff and students are reminded that the D.C. Chapter of the American Red Cross will be holding a blood drive on campus November 12, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in room 152 of Hall Memorial Building.

There is still time to sign up with Cisco Roman, Marian Dickson, or Roy Schauer.

Your donation is your insurance policy. If you or any member of your family should need blood, the Red Cross will replenish what you use from your hospital blood bank. In addition, if our quota is met this protection extends to the entire campus community regardless of whether you personally donated blood. If you should need blood, please contact Marian Dickson at 543 and she will make the necessary arrangements with the Red Cross.

AMONG OURSELVES

--Al Pimentel is conducting Leadership Training Workshops this month in Lafayette, Louisiana, and Tuxedo Park, New York. He will also make a presentation in Kansas City, Kansas, at a workshop entitled, "The Hidden Disability -- Deafness."

--Tom Mayes is speaking later this week at the National Education Association Convention in Chicago.

--"Robin," a film by Earl Higgins has been accepted by the Washington Area Filmmakers League and will be shown in the League's Festival six times during this month including a presentation on November 7, at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. at the University of Maryland, Tydings Hall, and on November 17, at 10 p.m. at the Biograph Theatre in Georgetown.

--Bill Smith, who has been a volunteer at the College since this summer, spoke this week at the

P.G. County Library in Hillcrest Heights about sign language.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

CUSTODIAN: Building Operations

SECRETARY I: Department of Counseling

SECRETARY II: Audiology and Speech

AUDIOLOGIST I: Audiology and Speech

GRAPHIC ARTIST: Film Media Unit

ELECTRONIC TECHNICIAN: Technical Support Center

PROFESSIONAL ASSISTANT: Public Service Programs

MATERIALS HANDLER/DRIVER: Transportation Department

GRAPHIC ARTIST: Center for Continuing Education

Gallaudet College is an equal opportunity employer.

BEWARE OF ADVERTISERS

A number of departments on campus have received phone calls from people soliciting advertising for the College as an equal opportunity employer in magazines and newspapers. Please be advised that such ads can not be authorized over the telephone and all such calls should be referred to the President's Office.

HONORING GEORGE DETMOLD

George Detmold, recently retired, will be recognized for his part in establishing theatre at Gallaudet College on opening night of the winter production. Developed from improvisation by the cast and directed by Gil Eastman, the production is dedicated in its entirety to George Detmold.

A reception will be held following the opening performance on November 14, in the Student Union Lounge. The Gallaudet College Theatre wishes to extend an invitation to all Gallaudet faculty and staff.

To reserve tickets call 605 (voice) or 786 (TTY). Tickets are $3 for general admission and $2 for students and children.

BE SURE NOT TO MISS...

...Graduate School Colloquium on November 7, at 2 p.m. in HMB 309 featuring Ray Trybus talking about recent activities of the Office of Demographic Studies.

...Captain William Goodwin of the Prince George's County Fire Prevention Bureau discussing the identification and elimination of fire hazards in the home on Tuesday, November 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the White Oak Library. The program is sponsored by the University of Maryland Cooperative Extension Service and will be interpreted for hearing impaired persons.

...a presentation on the Law Center and the Deaf on November 12, at 8 p.m. in the basement of Krug Hall.

....captioned version of the film, "Young Winston," depicting Winston Churchill's early years, from his childhood in Ireland to the events which laid the foundation for his great career. The film will be presented on November 12, at 7:15 p.m. at the Arlington County Public Library, 1015 North Quincy Street.

CORRECTION

The TTY number for the TV Message Wheel is 516 not 576. The voice number is 785. The wheel is now located in the Library.

ON THE GREEN is published by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College.

Judy Bortner,
editor

Judy